

Cipollini Frittata

(serves 4-6)

- 6 eggs, beaten
- 150ml (1tbsp) olive oil
- 80g (3 oz) pancetta diced
- 6 Aquafuchsia cipollini onions, quartered
- 1 potato, thinly sliced
- 15ml (1tbsp) parsley, minced
- salt and pepper

Preheat broiler. In a large oven-proof skillet, saute the onions, pancetta and potatoes in the oil. Remove the onions and pancetta when golden and the potatoes when tender. Reserve. Put the eggs into the same pan and cook for 1 minute. Return the reserved ingredients to the pan and add salt, pepper, and the parsley. Cook for two more minutes, under the broiler until lightly browned.

Optional: Add 2-3 slices of cheddar (or camembert, or even blue cheese) to top of frittata before broiling.
